FIVE PEOPLE KILLED

Flagman and Conductor of Trolley Car Arrested.

NO CHANCE TO STOP THE CAR

Waterbury, Coon., Nov. 30.—Five factory employees were killed at the West Main street crossing over the Highland division tracks of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad when an extra Hartford bound freight train crashed into a trolley car, containing 25 persons bound for the pin factories in Oakville. The car was struck with great force directly in the middle and all the passengers killed were badly mangled. Six others were badly injured and had to be carried to their homes.

Flagman John Flavin and Conductor John Dillon of the trolley car, were arrested. The motorman of the car, Charles Leonard, was not held.

It is stated that the wrecked trolley car was following closely behind another car which had passed over the crossing.

It is customary to drop the gates at the railroad crossing on the approach of a train, but in this instance the gates were up.

The flagman it is alleged waved his flag, showing a clear track.

There was absolutely no chance for the engineer of the train to stop his train in time to prevent the accident. Although he applied the brakes, the engine crashed into te trolley car, smashing it to splinters, and throwing the occupants in all directions. Many of those injured were carried to nearby stores, while some, who were unable to walk, were laid alongside the tracks until carriages and ambulances took them to their homes. The bodies of the known dead were cared for by relatives.

NEWS ON CURRENCY SITUATION.

Vanderlip Predicts a Normal Status During December.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Frank A. Vanderlip, vice president of the National City Bank of New York, who is visiting his mother here, has predicted that the currency situation will get back to normal as soon as the December pay rolls are met.

"Interior banks are undoubtedly hoarding money, that is they are running their reserves up to an abnormal point. There is an entirely adequate supply of currency at the present time. All that is needed to unlock the currency situation is more confidence and there is evidence of returning of that confidence.

"Some currency is being shipped to New York from interior points. In my opinion a few days more will end the premium on currency.

"There is a fair probability of currency legislation at the coming session of congress. Sentiment on the subject of currency legislation is still unerystalized. For my part I believe the ideal solution lies in the direction of a central bank that will have the power to issue and take on the fiscal duties of the treasury department. The effectiveness of cooperation through the clearing house during the present crisis has emphasized the important part the clearing house may be made to play in our financial system. It is possible the legislation now will give enlarged powers to the treasury to be used in conjunction with the clearing houses.

NEWSBOYS ENTERTAINED.

The injured persons include several firemen who, besides leg fractures, were overcome by smoke and a Mrs. Johnson, who was so badly affected by the smoke, that at first her condition was regarded as very serious. The Harvard house was owned by the L. E. Smith company.

COTTON, COAL IRON.

As Reasons for Thankfulness In This Country.

WATERPOWER IS ENORMOUS.

Agriuultural Products of the United States Greater than Farmers have Ever Before Had to Their Credit. Prosperous Times in Sight.

Baltimore, Nov. 29.—As reasons for thankfulness in the country the Manufacturers' Record sets forth the following:

"Take coal as the corner stone of material advancement, since it is the motive power of the world's industrial activities. Without coal Great Britain and Germany would never have attained their marvelous wealth nor reached their commanding position in the world's affairs. But Great Britain has about 12,000 square miles of coal area, and Germany 1,500. All Europe has only 50,000 square miles, of which more than one-half is in Russia. In the United States we have 350,000 square miles of coal, or just seven times as much as all Europe; and by virtue of the greater thickness of the veins we probably have twenty times as much coal.

"Of iron ore, as the foundation next to coal on which the world's civilization rests, since the measure of a nation's progress is marked by its advancement in the use of iron and steel in railroad construction and industrial activities, we have over 12,000,000,000 tons, with a possibility of other great discoveries yet to be made. It is safe to say that so far as the scientists know, the United States not only has more iron ore than all Europe, but, so far as their knowledge now goes, more iron ore than the rest of the world.

"Next to iron and steel in the value of finished output is cotton goods. It was only a few years ago when the value of the world's iron and steel production. Of raw cotton, the foundation of this vast industry whose growth is somewhat commensurate with the marvelous expansion in iron and steel, the United States has a monopoly of 80 per cent of the world's production, and so far as human foresight can see there is not for the next fifty years the slightest danger of any serious competition. For this one crop alone, of which Europe must of necessity draw its supply from us, we have a call upon the world's gold which must annually be paid by Europe to the extent of about $150,000,000 to $200,000,000.

"But while studying the vastness of our coal supply and its influence for the upbuilding of the country we should not forget the latent power in our rivers, which to a large extent up to the present time we have gone to waste as they have run their courses hilly from the mountains to the sea. In the south alone there is available for utilization on our rivers and streams possibly 5,000,000 horse-power. On this possibly one-tenth, or 500,000 horse-power has been or is being harnessed for electrical work. How vast is the available waterpower of the entire country it would be difficult to estimate, but certainly it is ample enough to say that the waterpower is greater than the total horsepower now used to do the manufacturing business of the country.

"These figures, however, comprise but a comparatively small part of the foundation for material prosperity. We control a very large part of the production of the world. We produce a large proportion of the world's cotton. The development of Portland cement industry, which is now in the second year, and which at present is one of the wonders of the business world, is but one of the limitless resources in this country for an extension of remarkable growth to rival the development of iron and steel. We have a country capable not only of feeding itself but of supplying hundreds of millions of bushels of corn and wheat, million of dollars worth of provisions and other foodstuffs to the less favored people of other lands. The value of our agricultural produts for 1907 will be over $7,000,000,000, an amount far greater than the farmers of this country have ever before had to their credit, and of this at least $2,000,000,000 will be the south's share. Even when we have catalogued these things we find that they are but a few of the leading factors in American solidity. Stretching from the lakes to the gulf, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is a region of 3,000,000 square miles, literally bursting with laten riches, needing but the magic wand of capital to be turned into active wealth for the blessing of mankind; a country so rich in natural advantages, so rich in soil and climate, in rivers and lakes, in iron, in coal, in cotton, in the varied products of the soil, that man cannot conceive of how greater resources could have been given to any spot on earth. Vast, limitless as are these resources, assuring progress and prosperity compared with which all that we have seen in the past, will prove to be but the very beginning of material prosperity, the future beckons us onward."

ALBANY WOMAN USES REVOLVER

She Was Alone in House at Time Burglars Entered.

Albany, Ga., Nov. 30.—Hearing some one trying to force an entrance at the back door of her home, on Jefferson street, Mrs. D. C. Betjeman, who was in the house alone, took her revolver and went out to face the burglar.

When she asked who was at the door, rapidly retreating footsteps were her only answer. She quickly threw open the door and emptied her revolver at the fleeing burglar. When the police arrived they found the tracks of two men in the yard.

Albany has been infested with burglars for two weeks. This is the second attempt that has been made to burglarize the Betjenian home.

"Opthalmo Tuberculin Test."

Ann Harbor, Mich., Nov. 30.—Sixty of the senior law students of the University of Michigan have subjected themselves to the new "opthalmo tuberculin test" to determine whether there are any tuberculosis germs in the body. The liquid is prepared from clean cultures of the tubercle bacillus, but precipitated in alcohol and instead of being injected like Koch's lymph, it is dropped into the subject's eye. If the disease is in existence in the body, it will be manifested in eight or ten hours. Of the subjects not one showed any reaction while patients in the hospital it was very manifest.

He will drive a 25-horse power car and is enthusiastic over the plans for the race. Le Matin originated the race last summer from Pekin to Paris, which was a great success. The route for the proposed race is from New York across the continent to the Pacific coast, through Alaska, across Behring straits, through Siberia and Russia and thence through Germany and France to Paris.

Special Policeman D. G. M W. D. Ryan, a non-combat Wong Leong, the Chinaman wounded. Wong Leong [illegible] is in the hospital with nine holes in his body. Murdock an were both shot in the l are not seriously injured.

The Hop Sing Tong of the Kong Tong societies have been fighting in this city for several years. Several Chinamen have been killed and injured in the gun duels between members of the two Tongs.

It was learned by the police today that four white gunmen had been imported from San Francisco to take a hand in the Tong war and that a watch was kept on the Chinese quarters.

Thursday night Deputy Sheriff Julian J. Moffitt followed a suspected Chinaman to the park. When he approached him the Chinaman opened fire, which was returned by the officer. Hearing the shots Special Policeman Murdock came to the assistance of the deputy sheriff.

At this moment four men, apparently whites, opened fire on the officers. Murdock went down with a bullet in his leg, but continued to use his gun. The pistol duel soon brought the police to the scene, but not before the four white men had made their escape.

Ryan, who was sitting on a curb near by, was hit by a stray bullet. The Chinaman was found lying on the ground literally riddled, having been struck by nine bullets.

GAME STOPPED BY POL

Work on Gridiron Was so Brut ficers Interfered.

New York, Nov. 30.—Two football games were played simultaneously on Laughlin oval in Williamsburg today and both were stopped by the police after six players had been hurt.

The teams indulged in such rough play that their partisans who were watching the game rushed on the field and took a hand, causing a riot. The police were forced to use their clubs before the trouble could be quelled.

Scarcely was this battle ended when another started on the same field and the police again had to use their clubs to quell the crowd with their clubs. All the injured will recover.

627 Lepers at Molokai.

Honolulu, Nov. 29.—The board of health on the petition of 627 lepers now living on the island of Molokai, has permitted Lorrin A. Thurston to begin the treatment of the lepers at their own settlement. This is the result of the agitation which has been carried on by Wallace and his friends for several months, during which they persistently claimed that no one had leprosy, and has thrown all the hopes of the lepers themselves, who are almost all Hawaiians, and their relatives and friends outside the settlement.

SIMONS HAD NO LICENSE.

Was Taking Pictures on the Street Without Necessary Papers.

A Hebrew by the name of Simons was arrested by Marshal Arnow Friday on a charge of doing business without a license.

Simons had a cannon-shaped camera, dangerous to look at, but guaranteed to give satisfaction as far as the likeness was concerned. He was busy all over the city visiting houses and making lapel pictures at fifteen cents each and was evidently enjoying a fine trade, as he appeared to get business at almost every place he stopped. It was the novelty of the thing which attracted the people.

But Marshal Arnow happened to "catch on" to Simons and his tricks, chased him down and informed him that he must secure a license before proceeding further. This Simons said he would not do, when he was placed under arrest, but the matter was finally settled by the payment of the costs by Simons, who promised that he would desist from further efforts in pushing his "profession"—

Which he did.

Committee Received Plans, and Same Now Under Consideration.

The building committee which has charge of the plans, etc., for the proposed Masonic Temple, have met and conferred, and now have the plans under consideration.

Contractor Dempsey, to whom was entrusted the drawing of the plans, presented a very concise and clever idea as to the arrangement of the proposed building, which will be located on the corner of West Main street N. and East Court street. The committee appeared to be well pleased with the plans and the suggestions embodied with same, and will no doubt be in position to let the contract in a few days.

Funeral of Mrs. Hanchette.

The funeral of Mrs. Hanchette, the sad death of whom occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Yocum, West Church street, was held at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the residence, Rev. T. J. Nixon of the First Methodist church conducting the ceremony.

There were many present, and the floral decorations were plentiful, which was an evidence of the popularity of the deceased.

A large crowd followed the remains to their last resting place in Evergreen cemetery, where the impressive services were concluded.

Baby Laugh

It belongs to health for a baby to eat and sleep, to laugh and grow fat.

But fat comes first; don't ask a scrawny baby to laugh; why, even his smile is pitiful! Fat comes first.

A Home Made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geo. W. Spencer, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by all druggists.

after having served her friends well, she was called to a better home.

"Resolved, further, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this chapter, and that a copy be sent to the relatives of the deceased."

An effort was made by Kirby Smith to secure some floral decorations for the funeral, but even the markets of Jacksonville were exhausted, and it was impossible to send an offering of this kind.

This meeting was a called one, for the purpose of expressing sympathy and passing resolutions. The regular monthly meeting of Kirby Smith, which will be held next Thursday, will be conducted into a memorial meeting in honor of this beloved lady.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

William Randall Had Skull Fractured, Being Struck by Falling Limb.

William Randall, an industrious colored employ of the Bock sawmill, a short distance west of the city, was the victim of a most peculiar but painful accident while engaged in the discharge of his duty Friday morning, and which will require the most diligent exercise of skill and close watching to save his life.

Randall is employed by the Bock mill as a woodsman. While in the forest Friday morning he had the misfortune to be struck on the head by a falling limb, fracturing his skull.

Randall was in company with another man at the time of the accident, and he was brought immediately to the office of Dr. R. B. Ayer in this city, who rendered professional aid.

Dr. Ayer states that the condition of the man is serious, but his chances for recovery, with proper attention, are good.

Savannah Market Fairly Active First of Last Week.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 29.—The market was fairly active early in the week for fancy, and moderately so for extra choice. Later, the demand for the latter has apparently been satisfied, and while fancy continues rather firm, the other grades are dull and quotations for the lower grades are reduced.

The weather was favorable for picking most of the week, but turned rainy latterly. General sentiment as to the size of the crop remains about 80,000 bales. Well informed Florida observers assert that the Florida crop will not exceed last year's.

The quality of the receipts shows no improvement. It is now estimated by careful experts that the proportion of fancy will not run over 12½ to 15 per cent, against a proportion of 50 to 60 per cent in last year's small crop.

When to Go Home.

From The Bluffton (Ind.) Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal, go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy, go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

This will be a public service, and it is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance.

Gainesville Lodge, which has a membership of more than 200, has a great deal to be thankful for. While this will be a memorial service, according to the rules and custom of the order, this lodge has not suffered the loss of a single member by reason of death since the last memorial service; but there are on the list two or three names of deceased members of the preceding year, and it is in memory of these that the exercises will be held.

Col. Christopher Matheson, an enthusiastic Elk and one of the most eloquent orators in all Florida, will deliver the oration, and the following excellent program has been arranged:

BLOXHAM DELL MARRIED.

Young Man of Twenty Years Marries Girl of Seventeen.

The young friends of Bloxham Dell of this city were surprised Friday to learn that he had taken unto himself a wife—and many thought the report was only a joke. The telegram conveying the information of his marriage, however, proved to be true, the marriage having taken place in Savannah last Friday at noon, his bride being Miss Lorena Kellar of Savannah, a beautiful young lady who he met at Brevard, N. C., last summer. Mr. Dell is only twenty years of age, while the bride is but seventeen.

The young couple were met by about fifteen of Mr. Dell's young friends on the arrival of the Seaboard train last night and received with such a shower of rice as was never witnessed in this city before.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell are the guests of Dr. E. Lartigue and wife for the present, where they are receiving the congratulations of the former's numerous friends.

DEATH AT NEWTOWN.

Holly Hismith, a Well-Known Young Man, Passed Away Thursday.

Holly Hismith, twenty-six years of age and and one of the most widely known and popular young men in his section of Levy county, died Thursday from a complication of diseases, principally liver trouble, at Newtown.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Hismith, who, with several brother and sisters, survive him. He was a member of the Church of Christ, and an upright young man.

The funeral was held Friday.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

M. S. Lanier, for many years a resident of Newberry, this county, but more recently from Lemon City, on the East Coast, was in Gainesville yesterday, and his old friends were glad at an opportunity to greet him again.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Folks of Newtown are rejoicing over the birth of a fine boy, which arrived Wednesday. Mr. Folks, who is making his home in this city, could not resist the temptation to leave at once for Newtown to see the young man, whom he pronounces "the finest boy in the land." Friends extend congratulations.

The home of F. X. Miller, West Union street, will soon be improved by a roomy addition, and other improvements will be made. The old store building, which recently underwent the experience of a fire, being partially burned, has been purchased by S. H. Dempsey. This building will be torn down and removed, the purchaser using the material for other purposes.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds and lung troubles. Hyde's Great Sale Still On.

Gainesville can truly boast of the largest dry goods store in the interior of Florida—an establishment that is conducted on up-to-date business principles and whose manager believes in publicity.

The advertisement of this establishment—The G. W. Hyde Company—today is of especial interest, and should be carefully read by every housekeeper, wife, father, mother, brother and sister.

J. D. Gardner, the manager, knows now to tell the public what he has to offer, and shoppers can rest assured that what he advertises can be obtained at prices quoted.

The Gainesville National Bank solicits all classes of accounts, and faithfully promises the same careful attention to the small depositor given those carrying large accounts. No matter how small your account may be, our attention to it will convince you that it is fully appreciated.

An Informal Dinner.

On Friday evening Prof. W. S. Cawthon, the clever principal of the Gainesville Graded and High School, formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Florida, entertained informally his friends, Profs. Flint and Cox, of the University, at a game supper, which it is needless to add was highly enjoyed.

Prof. Cawthon was at the University like he is making himself among the faculty and pupils of the high school—a "mighty clever fellow"—and his colleagues appreciate being in his company very much.

After dinner the cigars were enjoyed, followed by a pleasant evening chat, at which, as a matter of course, matters educational were discussed.

That's It! ! !

"HOW TO WRITE AN AD!"

Some merchants—and some business men in all lines—are not at all sure that they know "how to write an ad."

So much nonsense is written on the subject of advertising—so much mist is thrown around it—that a plain business man may be excused for coming to think that he must necessarily be a bungler as an ad-writer.

Now it happens that some of the best ads. in the world are written by business men who would lay no claim whatever to literary talents, or to the ability to "write." These successful merchants can "write"—although few people stop to consider it. Through their ability to write they lift up their business ventures to the plane of material success. They know the "trade of authorship" well enough to lift stores up on the points of their pens.

This "literary ability" comes from the simple fact that such men are tremendously, intimately, absorbedly interested in the things they write about. And in writing about their stores they say things that interest themselves—they write exactly as they would talk to you if they had your undivided personal attention, and were trying to make of you a new friend for the store or the ventures.

And that is about all there is to "How to Write An Ad."

Hon. C. D. Wadsworth, for many years State Senator from Madison county, died at his home in Madison on November 24th, aged 62 years. Mr. Wadsworth was a big-hearted man and his many friends all over the county will regret to hear of his death. He was well known in Gainesville and owned property in Alachua county.

Grover Cleveland can join the list of those politicians from whom Roosevelt has borrowed his policies. The President has followed the policy of issuing bonds to increase the supply of gold in the country. There is this difference, however, that Cleveland was forced to the issuance brought about by the panic, while Roosevelt's act was necessary by conditions caused by Republican policies.

Real estate booms up several counties with a full crop of candidates for county offices of consequence. Each of the people of Florida has as many as five for the same office and is looking out for everything that State Senator to Governor of the State.

Gainesville is the metropolis but we are willing to believe that the prettiest town in the county and we can truthfully say that our hotels do not have an equal anywhere through the accommodations are and we can truthfully say that our accommodations are better than heretofore.

FROST-PROOF ORANGES.

It will be many a long day before the memory of the terrible freeze in 1894-1895, which wrought such havoc to citrus fruit crops and brought ruin to so many growers, will pass from the minds of the people of Florida. Many of these are still struggling to recuperate financially from the almost fatal blow they received from the deathly breath of Boreas, while some have long since given up in despair or have died in comparative poverty.

Since those days very marked advances have been made in developing varieties of oranges that will withstand a temperature well below the freezing point, so that they may be exclusively planted in those sections which cannot be said to be immune from an occasional visit of very cold weather. The National Department of Agriculture has succeeded in producing varieties to bear a comparatively low temperature, but we learn through The New Orleans Times-Democrat of what are said to have been highly successful efforts in this direction on the part of an extensive fruit grower, J. L. Normand of Marksville. The Times-Democrat quotes from The Marksville Weekly News as follows:

"Mr. Normand will also soon be ready to send an attractive collection of his frost-proof oranges, which he himself has manipulated by crossing them so that the trees producing these hybrids will stand a temperature as low as 10 degrees above zero. The variety, which he has named the 'Carnegie' orange, the public will be surprised to learn that it took him over twelve years to evolve this fine fruit to its present perfection. It is a pleasure to take a walk over his experimental gardens and see the wonderful transformation he has accomplished by the scientific cross-breeding of plants. One can see entirely new races of fruit bearing and ornamental trees that exceed in beauty anything in cultivation in this part of the country. Mr. Normand's work is attracting the attention of the horticulturists far and wide."

It is evidently to the interest of Floridians to investigate regarding the foregoing statement, as the "Carnegie" orange—despite its rotten, objectionable name—might be a good one to grow in the most northernly portions of this State.—Tampa Tribune.

BOOMS THAT FAILED.

This is a bad time for political booms. The Taft boom is sagging, the Roosevelt boom has received a black eye as the result of the parade, and there are signs that it is being wrapped in cotton after being embalmed for preservation, and is now buried with the "Big Stick," the Fairbanks boom is resting to recuperate from its bout with the cocktails; the Cortelyou boom has been killed in the house of its friends, the frenzied financiers of Wall Street; the Hughes boom is engaged in a life and death struggle with the cold remains of the Roosevelt boom, with Odell and Platt and Depew ready to administer on the estate of the decedent, whoever it may be. The Knox boom looks the most likely to gather momentum, for it has the railroads and the money power back of it, but even with these advantages to a Republican boom it languishes in the arms of the rotten Pennsylvania political machine.

This thing of candidates for office having to make speeches in every county in the State is expensive. Why not talk the speech into a phonograph and send duplicate records to every town and village.—Times-Union.

FARM TRAINING NEEDED.

F. S. White, in Southern Farm Magazine of Baltimore for December, says:

"Only a short time ago a great creamery was built and the company wanted a young man who understood how to make a first-class quality of butter. They were willing to pay such a man $125 per month and advance his salary as the business increased. They wrote to the president of one of our great State agricultural colleges, stating what they wanted. I saw the letter the president wrote in answer. He said: 'I have looked over all my men carefully, and I am sorry to say that I do not have one that I feel warranted in recommending to you to fill the place.' But he went on to say that if they had written him for lawyers, doctors or preachers he could have sent them a carload on an hour's notice. Now this was casting no reflection upon the professions, for they are all needful, and we must have young men trained for filling these positions, but the point is that some of these professions may be oversupplied, while our agricultural possibilities are yet in their infancy, and are just beginning to be developed."

As the ship-subsidy is already gathering in Washington for another assault upon the Treasury, they must have confidence in the great majority of Republican Congressmen being in favor of that grafting proposition. Still one can hardly believe that for the sake of their own political fortunes, many Representatives of the people will take the chances of voting for the ship-subsidy graft and expect the people to re-elect them.

One woman sometimes wonders how another "manages so well with so small an income!" Buying advertised things probably explains it—or most of it.

REBUTTAL TESTIMONY IN TRIAL.

Of Mrs. Annie Bradley is Expected to Have Weight.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—The prosecution Friday continued its onslaught of rebuttal of testimony in the trial of Mrs Annie M. Bradley for the shooting to death of Former United States Senator Arthur M. Brown. Not only the government alienists, Dr. Jelliffe and Brush, but two new witnesses, whose testimony is expected to have some weight, will be called.

One of these is Rev. Dr. David H. Utter, of Salt Lake, who has been mentioned throughout the trial as "the Priest." Dr. Utter performed the marriage ceremony between Mr. and Mrs Bradley and was more or less thae confident of Mrs. Bradley. By him it is the intention to show that Mrs. Bradley had made threats against the senator's life.

The other witness is Dr. Henry D. Fry, a gynecologists of thiis city, and an authority of women's diseases, by whom it is expected to show an entirely different conclusion as to the cause and effect of toxic poisoning.

At the close of the day it was the belief that the testimony will all be in. There is a bare possibility that a session of the court will be held Saturday, although this would be somewhat unusual.

Before Dr. Shute began his testimony District Attorney Baker submitted too the court the government papers of the murder of Former Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, in Salt Lake city, December 8, was resumed at 10 o'clock Friday.

Dr. D. K. Shute, the jail physician, continued his rebuttal testimony begun Wednesday in the case, saying that they did not over the case of murder in the first or second degree, that point being left for the instruction of the court. The papers were not read. Dr. Shute's testimony developed nothing new. Rev David Utter, pastor of the Unitarian chuurch of Denver, formerly of Salt Lake City, who performed the marriage ceremony between Mr. and Mrs. Bradley then took the stand.

Sousa Considerably Improved.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Bandmaster John Philip Sousa, who arrived at the Auditorium hotel Thursday suffering from ptomaine poisoning, had a restful sleep last night and was considerably improved Friday. Home physician Hammond said there was no cause for alarm, but that it would be necessary for Mr. Sousa to remain quiet for some days. It is probable that Mr. Sousa will stay in Chicago until Monday.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short time."

RECTOR STARTS CRUSADE.

Against Racing and Miscegenation in New Orleans.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 30.—In his Thanksgiving day sermon here at the Trinity Protestant Episcopal church, the rector, Rev. Dr. Beverly D. Warner, inaugurated a crusade against racing in Louisiana, declaring that it is ruining the morals of her citizens, and that there should be no juggling with the issue. Race track gambling, miscegenation by prominent New Orleans men and performances which he characterized as "vile and lewd," were the subjects of his sermon.

Dr. Warner is one of the most prominent Episcopal ministers in the south, and his church here is one of the most fashionable in the city. He has also held charges in Philadelphia and elsewhere.

During the yellow fever epidemic here two years ago he headed a citizen's committee which undertook to stamp out the pest.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

Family Fired Upon While at the Supper Table.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 30.—The police have been asked to investigate the attempted assassination last Sunday evening of the family of Mrs. H. Boenning, while she and her two little children were at supper.

In the midst of the meal, it is said, a bullet splintered the window sash, and, whizzing across the table so as to barely miss the head of Mrs. Boenning's four-year-old daughter, buried itself in the opposite wall.

The family cannot conjecture who fired the shot that came near proving fatal. Next door to the Boenning residence is a vacant lot, and it was probably there that the would-be assassin, if assassin he was, had concealed himself.

So far the police have made no progress in their investigation.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diptheria." when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by all druggists.

DEPUTIES SWORN IN.

Federal Court Determined Orders Shall be Obeyed.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 30.—The only development of the day in the injunction suits of the rail lines against the state laws is the continual swearing in of the deputies by the United States marshall.

It is well known that additional deputies are sworn in, as well as to be ready for any violation of the orders of the court as to serve the papers.

Some of the most fearless men who have been in the service in the past have been secured, and it is given out that the court is determined that there shall be the most absolute observance of its orders. It is anticipated here that the order will be disobeyed, the feeling bting that everybody would like to get a test case.

A feature of the situation is that any suit brought for violation of the state acts now under restraint will be fought to the bitter end, if the party loses, the costs will be a young fortune.

The only other road expected to join the fighters is the Western of Alabama, which will likely file papers by Saturday.

President Smith and General Counsel Stone, of the Louisville and Nashville, left Friday for their homes in Louisville. They will be back for the hearing Monday.

Orders From Judge Jones.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 29.—The arrival from Montgomery of 150 copies of the order of Judge Thomas G. Jones, in the railroad rate cases this morning caused considerable excitement in the federal building, and arrangements were at once made by the United States marshal for putting on extra deputies to serve them at various points in north Alabama. The sheriff, solicitor and other court officials in the state.

Naples, Nov. 29.—The kidnaping of Marquis Guiseppe Coit, a cousin and aide of King Emmanuel, who after being tortured and forced to give up $500 was released by his captors, has caused great astonishment through the discovery that the organizer of the plot is in reality a policeman. On being arrested he confessed.

West Armament Reduction.

Victoria, British Columbia, Nov. 30.—Advices received from Japan state that several Japanese newspapers are calling for a reduction in Japan's armament on the ground that it is more expensive than the country can afford.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

KAUFMAN WHIPS SULLIVAN.

Betting Very Brisk—Thousands of Dollars Changed Hands.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—Al Kaufman, of this city, was awarded the decision over Jack (Twin) Sullivan, of Boston, at the end of the twenty-five rounds at the Colma Athletic Club Thursday afternoon.

As Referee Roche rendered his decision in favor of Kaufman, Sullivan threw his arms around Kaufman and kissed him on the cheek.

The fight took place in the open-air arena of the Colma Athletic Club, and a more perfect day for the holding of the battle could not have been desired. Betting on the result had been very brisk, and up to noon many thousands of dollars had changed hands.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

Land Ahead

Do you remember Sylvester Baxter's weird story of "The Haven of Dead Ships?" The inevitable destination of derelict, rudderless ships is the Sargasso Sea—a sea within a sea, formed of gulf-weed, amassed by the force of swirling currents. The Gulf stream carries the weed northward; then, it sweeps it around in a southerly direction collecting it in a great mass at a common center. Naturally, derelicts take the course of the seaweed. To the lost mariner, it is mocking suggestion of "Land ahead!" One night fanned a tropic sun had sucked the Atlantic dry. How dry. How like the rudderless ship—without mast or spar or sail—are many men. The onward sweep of resistless human currents move their burdens toward certain havens. But there are tangential points where the ship may deviate unless the rudder holds her to the current. Without it she turns toward a hapless doom. In their frantic, aimless course, the fated seamen sight land which turns out to be only a Sargasso Sea. Toward this sluggish region of blasted hope every man, devoid of ideals, is turned. One may be carried by the current—but to no distant port. They lead to zones where never a friendly sail is sighted.

Whisperings.

The silent sufferings of the mind, as it undertakes to unravel the tangled thread of life and affection are unworthy. It has no spoken language. It tells its story in the sunken eye, the shattered nerve, the silvery hair, the furrowed brow. It is a sad story that needs no tongue—its eloquence is in the very hush that attends it. Watch the throng that's passing now—you'll catch the message. Suffering hearts speak in whispers. They dread the listening ear. They evade the nameless fiend who would increase the torture by his nameless gossip.

Shifting Sands.

The drift of Time has brought with it the shifting sands. Rivers sometimes change their course. Vast territories, very far removed from seas and oceans, have deposits that puzzle the brain. The Great Gorge is but the history of Niagara. The Grand Canyon of the Colorado is but the caprice of a waterfall among the wild and scenic fastnesses of the Rockies. What we call Time is only a halt in the march of the centuries—a period that grants a human being the moment to fashion destiny. The river of life moves on in stately grandeur—today, a limpid stream; tomorrow, a frantic torrent. Things do not really decay—they only change, they shift. It is a thing crowded with pathetic sadness. Some day my child will begin its pilgrimage to a far-away land. Some other child will romp and sport on my baby's old play-ground. Thus, the shifting scenes are set for the new that come to play their part in life's great drama.

Edelweiss

Real and perfect love is unconditional. It is utterly blind—it can never be conscious of reason why one should be untrue. It believes and trusts in spite of doubts and fears. The fact is, these very things fan the coal into a consuming flame. The edelweiss is an Alpine plant that is the more beautiful when nursed by storm and tempest. It blossoms in eternal snow and gets its beauty from the storm. There is one kind of love, and then there is another. There is a kind that gets its grandeur and beauty in proportion to the appeals that would persuade it to doubt. Love is measured by its refusals to accept an argument that would lead it to disbelieve.

The Snow-Crowned

Old age ought to be bright—so it seems to us on this side the fifties. Mount Shasta, with its snow-crowned head, is not beyond the reach of the Rockies. It graces all the mighty hills that are piled in such reckless grandeur. Without it the lesser peaks would be of little importance. How much we wish these old heroes would not suffer such impatience to be off to the other world. The race of men would have them wait. The great big world is all the more beautiful because they abide. When Lacure lay dying he cried: "Open the windows!" For the pall of an impenetrable night was falling. In the same anxiety, Rousseau prayed for "a parting look at the orb of day." A parting look. However sublime the glories of the future life, at last we steal away from a good old world when we slip away from this. Shame on the man who grows tired of it. Oh, yes, our feet grow weary and are pierced by many a thorn in the journey toward the heights. But the heights—toward these heights we've journeyed many years. It is to be devoutly wished that the clouds of our sunset may be richly painted with sapphire and gold. Already some of us have caught visions of the faraway city. Already some of us have reached the hills where the air comes freighted with the breath of flowers. Already, some of us have caught the refrains of those who sing on shoreless seas. And if we could only see—the air is populous with our exhuted dead and our listening ears have caught the noise of wings.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

A SAFE HOME TREATMENT

In S. S. S. nature has provided a certain, safe, home cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It is a medicine made entirely of roots and herbs of recognized blood-purifying value, and is the one medicine which is able to get down to the root of the trouble and remove every particle of the virus, and at the same time benefit and build up the system and general health. No harmful effects ever follow its use, as is so often the case when strong mineral medicines are used. As soon as the system gets under the influence of S. S. S. the disease begins to disappear, and when the remedy has thoroughly purified the blood and driven out every trace of the poison, no signs of the trouble are ever seen again. The general manifestations of Contagious Blood Poison such as falling hair, copper-colored spots, ulcerated mouth and throat, sores and ulcers, etc., are merely symptoms of the poisoned condition of the blood, and in most cases respond quickly to local treatment, while S. S. S. is doing the necessary work of cleansing the blood. Our "Home Treatment" book is of great assistance along this line. It is a complete guide for treating the trouble, containing instructions for the different stages of the disease and also valuable suggestions about the local treatment that will be most helpful in effecting a cure. We will be glad to send a copy of this book, free of charge, to any who desire it, and if special medical advice is wanted our physicians will take pleasure in supplying it without cost to you. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison you can rid yourself in the privacy of your own home by the use of S. S. S., the only safe remedy.

Passed Examination Successfully.

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn. writes: "I tried several kidney remedies and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After the second bottle I showed improvement and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a third examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Glorious Thanksgiving.

Evington, Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving was pleasantly and appropriately observed at Evington.

In the forenoon at 11 o'clock a praise service was held in the school house. Rev. Thrasher of Bloomingdale conducted the special service. Prayers by Revs. Thrasher and Sherard were offered. Our retired pastor, Rev. Dart, was at his best in a sermon from I Thess. 5:18. The audience was large and attentive. One feature of the worship was the good music with Mrs. J. W. Scarborough at the organ.

In the afternoon, after the service, a basket dinner was served on the lawn. Those who were present will not forget what a really and truly Thanksgiving dinner is. Nearly every family in Evington was represented and a fine time was enjoyed by all.

A NOTABLE MARRIAGE.

Son of Gen. E. Kirby Smith Married At Sewannee, Tenn.

The Jacksonville Metropolis of November 28th says:

General E. Kirby Smith, of Confederate army fame, was a native of St. Augustine, Fla., and in Hemming Park in Jacksonville on the north side of the Confederate monument, appears the bronze features and a short historical sketch of him, which is read by thousands of visitors every winter.

In this connection an account of a marriage solemnized on last Tuesday at Sewannee, Tenn., gives much information of the Smith family, which will be read with interest here. It is from The New Orleans Times-Democrat, and is as follows:

"The wedding at Sewannee on Tuesday morning last was a beautiful affair, in the pretty new chapel donated by the late Mrs. Telfair Hodgson as a memorial to her eldest daughter and to her husband, the late Dr. Telfair Hodgson, for many years vice-chancellor of the university. Mr. Ephraim Kirby Smith was mated in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Pauline Brooks, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston S. Brooks, of Sewannee. This union of the two best known families was the outcome of a lifelong child love. Mr. Smith is the youngest of the six daughters and five sons of General Edmund Kirby Smith and his wife, Miss Cassie Selden, lately deceased. He was until Tuesday one of the four unmarried children of this famous pair, Dr. J. Lee Kirby Smith, now of New York and Misses Elizabeth and Josephine Kirby Smith, a graduate of the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, being the unmarried sisters. Miss Elizabeth has been postmistress at Sewannee under three Presidents—Cleveland, McKinley and Roosevelt. The young groom has been a noted football player all his school days, and was captain of the Grammar School eleven and was succeeded by his present brother-in-law, Louis Brooks. He is now living in Mexico, mining with his brother, William Kirby Smith.

"Miss 'Polly' Brooks is a pretty and popular young Sewannee belle, and last year visited here with her sister, Miss Catherine Brooks. They became very popular in New Orleans during their stay. Her brother was Miss Gaillard of South Carolina, and is widely connected in the United States, Alabama, Louisiana and Texas. The father of the bride was the gallant son of the gallant Preston S. Brooks, who commanded a company of Butler's Palmetto Regiment in the Mexican War, and went to represent South Carolina in the House, caned Charles Sumner of Massachusetts in his seat in the Senate.
